

THE BOOK OF

PSALMS

PSALM 38-40

Psalms 38

- Written by David

Psalms 38

- Written by David
- Context: David is going through incredible pain (physically and emotionally)

Psalms 38

- Written by David
- Context: David is going through incredible pain (physically and emotionally)
- David's sin had brought about the discipline of the Lord.

Psalm 38

- Written by David
- Context: David is going through incredible pain (physically and emotionally)
- David's sin had brought about the discipline of the Lord.
- Penitential Psalm (Ps. 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130; 143)

Psalm 38

- Written by David
- Context: David is going through incredible pain (physically and emotionally)
- David's sin had brought about the discipline of the Lord.
- Penitential Psalm (Ps. 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130; 143)
 - A psalm expressing penitence.

Psalm 38

- Written by David
- Context: David is going through incredible pain (physically and emotionally)
- David's sin had brought about the discipline of the Lord.
- Penitential Psalm (Ps. 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130; 143)
 - A psalm expressing penitence.
- OUTLINE:
 - David's Penalty (v. 1-14)
 - David's Pardon (v. 15-22)

Psalms 39

- Written by David

Psalms 39

- Written by David
- David's response to divine discipline (v. 10)

Psalms 39

- Written by David
- David's response to divine discipline (v. 10)
- Addresses the frailty and brevity of life

Psalm 39

- Written by David
- David's response to divine discipline (v. 10)
- Addresses the frailty and brevity of life
- Heading:

"To the choirmaster: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David"

Psalm 39

- Written by David
- David's response to divine discipline (v. 10)
- Addresses the frailty and brevity of life
- Heading:

"To the choirmaster: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David"

- Probably used in the temple worship

Psalm 39

- Written by David
- David's response to divine discipline (v. 10)
- Addresses the frailty and brevity of life
- Heading:

"To the choirmaster: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David"

- Probably used in the temple worship
- Written for Jeduthun who was David's choir leader (1 Chr 16:41-42; 25:1, 6; 2 Chr 5:12)

Psalms 39

- Written by David
- David's response to divine discipline (v. 10)
- Addresses the frailty and brevity of life
- Heading:

"To the choirmaster: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David"

- Probably used in the temple worship
- Written for Jeduthun who was David's choir leader (1 Chr. 16:41-42; 25:1, 6; 2 Chr. 5:12)
- OUTLINE:
 - David's Silence (v. 1-3)
 - David's Supplication (v. 4-6)
 - David's Submission (v. 7-13)

Psalm 40

- Written by David

Psalm 40

- Written by David
- Context: David was facing something extremely painful to his soul...yet, he put his trust in the Lord.

Psalms 40

- Written by David
- Context: David was facing something extremely painful to his soul...yet, he put his trust in the Lord.
- OUTLINE:
 - David's Praise (v. 1-10)
 - David's Petition (v. 11-17)