THE BOOK OF

PSALMS
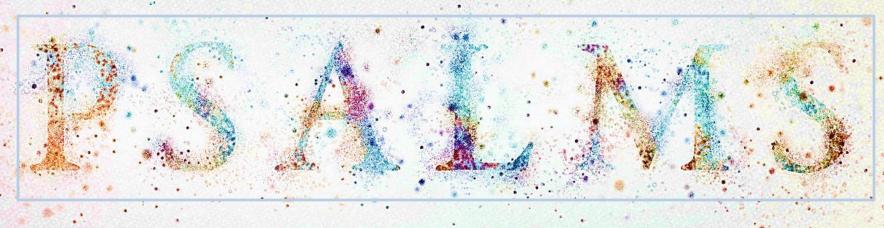

PSALM 73-75

Psalm 73

- Starts Book III (Ps. 73-89)
- Written by "Asaph"
- Deals with the question: "Why does the wicked prosper and the righteous go unrewarded?"
- OUTLINE:
  - A Difficult Problem (v. 1-16)
  - A Different Perspective (v. 17-28)

Psalm 74

- Written by "Asaph"
- Psalm teaches us about failure and forgiveness.
- Written at the time the Babylonians destroyed Jerusalem in 586BC. (2 Kings 25)
- OUTLINE:
  - Asaph's Confusion (v. 1-11)
  - Asaph's Confidence (v. 12-23)

Psalm 75

- Written by "Asaph"
- A "Thanksgiving Psalm"
- OUTLINE:
  o A Word of Praise (v. 1)
  o A Word of Promise (v. 2-3)
  o A Word of Preparation (v. 4-5)
  o A Word of Peril (v. 6-8)
  o A Word of Perspective (v. 9-10)

Bibliography

Hansel, Tim. You Gotta Keep Dancin', David C. Cook, 1985.

Lawson, Steven. Holman Old Testament Commentary, 2003.

Lucado, Max. "In the Eye of the Storm" Word Publishing, 1991

Our Daily Bread "It's Better Higher Up" Bible.org

Wiersbe, W. Wycliffe Handbook of Preaching & Preachers.